— PHYLLIS HANES —

New York City is overwelming when it come to eating out! With nearly 16,000 places to choose from, the best one is Szechuan Hunan Cottage. Their Chef was formerly at the Grand Hotel in Taipei, and also cooked for Mme.
Chiang Kai-Shek when she lived on Long Island. His Hunan and Szechuan dishes are excellent. Most importantly, he does not allow the commonly used MSG.

DRAGON WOK CHINESE CUISINE

Forget this moment where you are,
wish upon the Dragon Star!
Delight your soul with quiet talk,
And food from the Dragon Wok.

Ours is a small family restaurant, modest and a little old-fashioned. Our Kitchen is modern, our cuisine ancient. We prepare many traditional dishes of both North and South China. We use only good ingredients with your good in mind.

The aromas and flavors you experience are natural, not artificial. We are kind to the food, careful not to underdo or overdo. Balanced use of fire is important to the Dragon watcher of the wok and our master chef.

Complimentary wine is served here with dinner. Our take-out is prompt, no delivery charge. Serving you is our privilege. Pleading you is our pledge. If, for any reason, you are unhappy with your order, it can be recooked, replaced, or refunded. China's belovedly benevolent Dragon and our master chef would not have it otherwise.

We hope to see you here or hear from you at home, whenever or wherever, we and the Dragon await you. Good life and good luck be yours.

Cordially,

Tom Chiu

Upper East Side Chinese that has "absolutely famous" dumplings, hot Szechuan noodles and other "irresistible eats".
..... "prompt service, especially for takeout".

Newsday Magazine

Sunday Nov. 25, 1990

Steamed vegetable dumplings were delicate and very freshly made.
These shrimp dumplings were actually better than some of the shrimp dumplings I've eaten below Canal.
